In these advertising creative design, we will promote Taishan tea culture as the background, depicting IP image design and packaging design related to Taishan daughter tea craft. This not only represents the inheritance and promotion of Taishan tea culture, but also can effectively publicize Taishan tea culture industry chain and help the effective promotion of tea products. We hope that through this series of cultural and creative design works, we can show the world the profound tea culture of China's Taishan and publicize the characteristic culture of Shandong Taishan.

03 Research about our idea

Inspired by ancient and modern paintings about tea, the first inspiration is from the ancient paintings of making tea and drinking tea, through the steps of "making tea" to understand the traditional Chinese culture, from material to spiritual, and gradually form the traditional oriental culture, from the step by step process, experience and enjoy the fun of making tea. Through the ancient paintings of "drinking tea", the tea drinking environment, the tea drinkers, the actions and demeanor's of the characters, and the clothing of the characters are extended to the ancients who painted while writing poems and drinking tea and enjoying life. The second inspiration is from the modern national tide painting about tea-related works, to analyze the advantages to help us create.

1.Research on the steps of making tea: It is divided into eight steps, namely:

① Take water

② Selection of utensils

③ Wash the cup

④ Put tea leaves

⑤ Steeping tea

⑥ Pour the tea

⑦ Serving tea

⑧ Tea tasting

2.Analysis of the correlation of drinking tea in ancient paintings:

The tea drinking environment of ancient paintings: divided into indoor and outdoor, the indoor one is to drink tea on the table or bed, and the outdoor is in the pavilion, leaning against the tree or stone to drink tea, the surrounding environment is comfortable and comfortable, there are mountains and rivers, you can drink tea while playing the piano and composing poems.

Tea drinkers:

Court ministers

Literati

Monks

Folk

Character action demeanor:

The actions include pouring tea, drinking tea, toasting each other with tea, clinking glasses, and other actions to reflect the etiquette of drinking tea. Leisurely, enjoy the demeanor of life, through the ancient paintings, you can feel the comfort of the time, feel the development process of etiquette culture.

Dressing of the characters: choose light gauze and silk fabrics in hot weather, and choose kudzu yarn materials in cold weather, or The material of ramie, this hemp material is light and thin and has good air permeability, which is very suitable for drinking tea.

3.Inspiration in modern Guochao paintings:

using traditional Chinese red, green, and yellow as the main colors, combined with ancient tea-tasting figures and related items such as trees, mountains, pavilions, clouds, and traditional teacups, processed and created, combined with modern pop culture, so that the works have a modern sense.

4.Summary of the study :

we finally summarized that our products are combined with ancient paintings of making tea and drinking tea, as well as modern culture to integrate and design, including, the steps of tea picking are arranged and designed, the style of teapots is combined with modern culture, and the landscape, pavilion, and lotus flowers on behalf of ancient paintings are integrated to design our posters and packaging.

5.Competitor Analysis:

Xinyang Maojian brand:

light brown cylindrical packaging, green background, silver font design, and brown sketches to highlight the tea brand.

Advantages: The packaging is well sealed, easy to carry and store, neat.

Disadvantages: The cylindrical design is not easy to take out of it.

Biluochun brand:

The packaging is made of metallic texture, and the green packaging design can reflect the cleanliness and tidiness of the tea brand, and the concise logo is very eye-catching.

Advantages: tightly packed, not easily corroded by air.

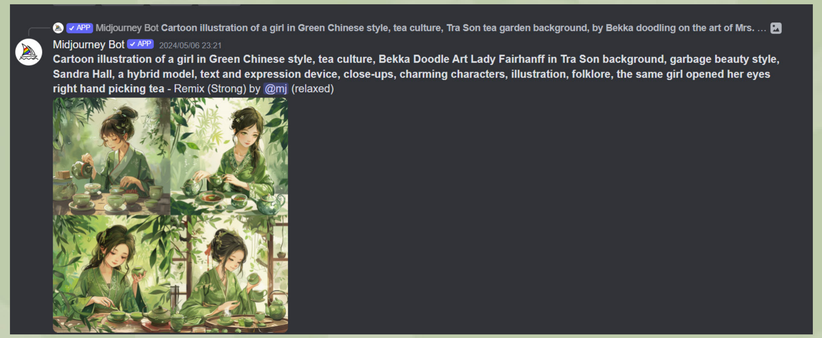

Disadvantages: The design is very popular, and it does not highlight the advantages of its own brand.

04 Design process and development

On the technical level, we edit the text by ourselves.

(1)First, the text describes the picture effect we need, simplifies it, and draws the sketch of the picture we want on the Ai.
(2)Then we put the text and the sketch together on midjourney to generate the picture effect we want,
(3)and then we will gradually modify and adjust it. Get the final image effect on midjourney.
(4)Finally, we will draw out the shortcomings by hand on Ai, ps and procreate to get the final effect picture.
